Quilt Construction:

- Trim the pillow panel pictures to 12½" wide x 15" tall each.
- Cut one strip each of Cowboys on Horses, each measuring 6 ½" x 12 ½".
- Cut one strip each of all Tossed Bulls, Cowboys Best Friends, Bandana Print, Basket Weave, Rope Print and Leather Print. Each strip to be cut 2 ½" x 42/44". Total 22 strips.
- Cut two additional strips of Black Leather Print, each measuring 1" x 12 ½".
- Sew one of the 1" x 12 ½" black leather strips to the top of one of the pillow panel pictures.
- Sew the remaining 1" x 12 ½" black leather strip to the bottom of the remaining pillow panel picture.
- Sew the 3 Cowboys on Horses prints together to make one unit measuring 12 ½" x 18 ½".
- Sew the pillow panel picture in step 5 to the top of the Cowboys on Horses unit.
- Sew the pillow panel picture in step 6 to the bottom of the Cowboys in Horses unit.
This completes the center unit of the table runner/wall hanging.

- Cut 3 strips, each measuring 2½" x 6½" from each of the 22 strips in step 3. This will total 66 strips. Cut an additional 6 strips from the remaining fabrics (your choice) for a final count of 72 strips, each measuring 2½" x 6½".
- Take 3 random strips from step 10 and sew them together to form a block 6½" x 6½". Make 24 of these blocks.  Alternate the prints in each block to get a scrappy look. Sew two of these  blocks together, alternating the direction of the second block to the first.  Sew this completed block unit to the top of the center panel unit.  Sew a second block unit together, and sew this completed unit to the bottom of the center panel unit.
- Sew 10 blocks together, alternating the directions to form the left side of the panel. Use the diagram right to orient the blocks. Sew the remaining 10 blocks together to form the right side of the table runner/wall hanging, using the diagram right to orient the blocks. Sew these two long strips to the left and right sides of the table runner/wall hanging to complete the quilt top.
- From the remainder of your red, cream and blue leather print fabrics, join 2½" wide strips together to form one long strip measuring 2½" x 180". You will use this long strip for your binding.
- From the remainder of your fabrics, piece together a backing for your table runner/wall hanging. The finished pieced back should measure 30" x 66".
- Sandwich your quilt top with the batting and backing, making sure you center the quilt top on the sandwich. Quilt as desired, and bind with the binding strip made in step 13.
